

IDAHO RESEARCH

Where to find genealogical information in Idaho

For obituaries and other newspaper articles from the Boise, Idaho newspaper, and other Boise/Ada County information, contact the Boise Public Library at www.boisepubliclibrary.org/

The Idaho Statesman (Boise) obituary index: <http://www.boisepubliclibrary.org/research/obituaries-local-history/obituary-index/>

For obituaries or other information from other areas in Idaho, contact the public library in the city or county of the death or burial. This website also describes some of the records held by the individual libraries. www.publiclibraries.com/idaho.htm

Twin Falls area: the Twin Falls Public Library has a free searchable online newspaper archive of Twin Falls newspapers from October 1904 to October 2013. <http://newspaper.twinfallspubliclibrary.org/>

For information from around the state, including older county records from many Idaho counties, early Idaho State prison records to 1947, Idaho newspapers, maps, oral histories, and photographs, contact the Idaho State Archives at:

<http://history.idaho.gov/idaho-state-archives>

Western States Marriage/Death/Birth index - a compilation of records from various sources:

<http://abish.byui.edu/specialCollections/westernStates/>

A very useful site for Idaho maps, as well as the rest of the country, is the Atlas of Historical County Boundaries

<http://publications.newberry.org/ahcbp/map/map.html#ID>

This site was created by The Newberry Library, Dr. William M. Scholl Center of American History and Culture.

Other sources of information:

- <http://familysearch.org> (free)
- <http://ancestry.com> (free at many libraries or by subscription)
- www.findagrave.com (free)
- www.billiongraves.com (free)
- <http://www.rootsweb.ancestry.com/> (free)
- www.google.com

Updated 26 April 2017