Nearly 200 ancestor-minded Idahoans met February 8, 1958 at the Idaho Historical Museum, Julia Davis Park, Boise, Idaho, to organize the Idaho Genealogical Society. In attendance at this meeting were genealogists from Boise, Weiser, Nampa, Caldwell, Emmett, Meridian, Mountain Home and from Ontario, Oregon.

Mrs. Joyce Owen of Boise, served as temporary chairman of the organization; she being very instrumental in starting this society. A committee was appointed to draw up a constitution and to nominate permanent officers. Members of this committee included Mrs. Dean Ingerham, Mrs. Frank Wilson and Mrs. Lillis Melander, all of Bise; Mrs. Jacob Jensen, Emmett; Dayton Raff and Richard L. Maus, Nampa; Mrs. Bessie Kepler, Caldwell; and Alice Hicks, Mountain Home. Mrs. Lola Stocking was named secretary pro-tem.

On March 8, 1958, a general meeting was held and the constitution was presented and adopted. The following officers were nominated and elected:

President.....Lola L Stocking.....Meridian
Vice-President.....Earl M. McCandless.....Nampa
Secretary.....Mrs. Jacob Jensen.....Emmett
Treasure.....Roy B. Arnold, Jr.....Boise

Board of Directors:

Dayton Raff.....Nampa
Joyce Owen.....Boise
Dale Walden.....Boise
Murray Badgley.....Boise
Mrs. Frank Wilson.....Boise
Alice Hicks.....Mountain Home

The objectives of this society are:

To give mutual assistance in genealogical research.
To collect and preserve genealogical records.

The membership in the Idaho Genealogical Society is maintained through the payment of $3.00 yearly dues for married couples; $2.00 for single memberships. Membership in the society includes a subscription to the Idaho Genealogical Society Quarterly, a publication issued quarterly.
